

Here is a list of useful resources to help you on your social media journey:

1. Canva Canva is a user-friendly graphic design platform. You can use Canva to create visually appealing posts, graphics, and infographics for your social media content without the need for advanced design skills. Canva offer discounts for premium features to non-profit organisations
2. DigitalBoost DigitalBoost offers free online resources, webinars, and guides to help businesses and community groups
3. Social Bee SocialBee provides tools and resources to help automate social media posting, making it easier for small groups to maintain a consistent online presence without constant manual effort.
4. Later Later is a social media scheduling tool that allows users to plan and schedule posts in advance. It's a helpful resource for small groups looking to save time and maintain a consistent posting schedule.
5. Inspiring Scotland Providing tailored advice and support to Scottish charities with specialist volunteers who can help you reach a large network of professionals across various sectors.
6. HTSI - Highland Third Sector Interface can provide support in networking as well as training covering digital security and GDPR
7. Fotor - free photo editing software
8. Google Analytics for beginners - an introduction to analytics
9. Unsplash - a library of open-source HD photographs
10. SCVO Digital Hub - a library of resources from the Scottish Council for Voluntary Organisations, you can also book GDPR and Cyber Resilience training here

